

Jim Dumps exulted, "We do not, On Summer days so close and hot, Build up a fire and stew and steam! A dish of 'Force', a bowl of cream, Is just the food to fit our whim. And keeps us cool," laughed "Sunny Jim."

"Force"

The Ready-to-Serve Cereal

not a blood heater.

Ideal Summer Food.

"Force" is an ideal summer food because it contains elements for nourishing every organ of the body, is easily digested, creates what we know is vigor, and at the same time does not make a river of fire out of the blood. — FRANK G. STANTON.

Perhaps If You Knew.

In a little booklet prepared by Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, President of the National Suffrage Association, she calls attention to some interesting facts as follows:

"Perhaps, if you observed that the opposition to woman suffrage comes from States where women do not vote and is therefore based upon theory, while in no State where the people have extended the suffrage to women, and therefore have had opportunities to observe the effects of its actual operation, has there been any effort to repeal such laws, you might feel more confidence in the righteousness of the cause, and be willing to speak a word for it now and then."

"Perhaps, if you knew that the overwhelming testimony from the most prominent, responsible, and respected citizens of the suffrage States agrees that woman suffrage has resulted in better candidates for office, cleaner political places, quieter elections and improved legislation, and that women have grown more intelligent, self-reliant, respected and womanly under its influence, you would feel it your duty to work that such results might come to all States."

"Perhaps, if you knew, as many do know, that woman-suffrage measures have been defeated in the past dozen years in many instances by well-proved bribery, you would declare that a cause so hated by bribers must be worthy the support of honest people, and you might be willing to contribute something toward legitimate educational work for the cause."

"Do you realize that women are not disfranchised because 'women do not want to vote, because good men fear the influence of bad women on politics, or bad politics on good women' as is commonly reported, but because bad men fear the influence of good women on bad politics and fear the influence of good politics over the affairs of bad men?"

Bostock's Great Animal Arena.

Rare zoological interests multiply almost daily at Bostock's great Animal arena at Sea Beach Palace, Coney Island. On Sunday last the animal king added another to his marvellous 467 varieties by placing on exhibition for the first time in this country a female Japanese bear, just received on the S. S. Richmond Castle from Tokio, Japan. Like the people of the country of its habitat, the rare species of bear has eyes that slant. Other facial characteristics similarly suggest the peculiar physiognomy of the Japanese. So great have become the crowds to the big exposition that the big arcade entrance, already twice changed, is now being altered anew, and when finished will offer to the public entrance and exit room extending the entire front of the middle wing of the vast Sea Beach Palace structure.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistence and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobok of Illinois, Calif., writes: "For fifteen years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by all druggists. — Advt.

Carpet Cleaning.

Now is the time to clean carpets. If you want your carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid, send word to D. Douglas, No. 9 Park street, Montclair. Mr. Douglas has had years of experience in carpet cleaning, and has a large patronage in this town, Glen Ridge and Montclair. Those intending to move can have their carpets taken up, cleaned and relaid on short notice. The work will be well and promptly done. — Advt.

New Jersey at St. Louis.

A very elaborate work on the resources and advantages of this State for distribution at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition is being compiled by Hon. Ellis K. Meeker of Newark. The object is to attract special attention to the great progress being made in the State, prominently setting forth its desirability as a place of residence, manufacturing and kindred industries, agricultural pursuits, investment, and general employment.

The work contemplated will be of greater scope and more far reaching as a citizen-gatherer among the visitors at the Exposition than any heretofore published; it will also be a valuable work of reference for all citizens, as it will contain much important data and interesting statistics.

There is no one better qualified for the compilation of such a work than Mr. Meeker, whose extensive knowledge of and interest in State affairs and acquaintance with the public men throughout the State specially adapt him for a work of this character.

We bespeak for him the greatest measure of success in this patriotic effort to bring New Jersey so prominently before the world at the great exposition.

Camera Shows Twins to Be Unlike.

"It is a curiosity of photography that two persons who look alike in the flesh look entirely unlike in a picture," said a photographer. "I saw that peculiarity exemplified in the case of two girls whom I photographed a few weeks ago. The girls were twins. Each was the dead image of the other, and I felt positively uncanny when posing them, for I expected the result to be two pictured faces startlingly alike. But they did not turn out so. The features were the same, to be sure, but in the photographic process the underlying expression had been brought to the fore and had given to each girl an individuality of her own which diminished the resemblance wonderfully."

"I have noticed the same peculiarity in other cases of photographing doubles, although never in so pronounced a degree. In some faces expression counts for much more than feature, even in photography, and, although the cheeks, nose and mouth may be cast in the same mold, the camera gives results widely different." — New York Press.

Thackeray Didn't Wear Spurs.

Thackeray was not a vain man, and he disliked vanity in others and made it the subject of his ridicule and sarcasm.

After long pleading his family induced him to have his portrait painted, and Lawrence, a famous London artist, gladly undertook the task.

Soon after the picture was completed Thackeray chanced to be dining at his club when a pompous officer of the guards stopped beside the table and said:

"Haw, Thackeray old boy, I hear Lawrence has been painting your portrait."

"So he has," was the response.

"Full length?"

"No; full length portraits are for soldiers, that we may see their spurs. But the other end of the man is the principal thing with authors," said Thackeray.

When Squirrels Were Numerous.

Accounts of early writers show that squirrels must formerly have been amazingly numerous. Godman says that the gray coat was a fearful scourge to colonial farmers and that Pennsylvania paid $8,000 in bounties for their scalps in 1749 alone. This meant the destruction of 640,000 within a comparatively small district. In the early days of western settlement regular hunts were organized by the inhabitants, who would range the woods in two companies from morning till night, vying as to which band should bring home the greatest number of trophies. The quantities thus killed are almost incredible now.

An Abstract Idea.

At a card party at Charles Lamb's Hazlitt and Lamb's brother got into a discussion as to whether Holbein's coloring was as good as that of Van Dyke. At length they became so excited that they upset the table and seized each other by the throat. In the struggle Hazlitt got a black eye, but when the combatants were parted Hazlitt turned to Talfourd, who was offering his aid, and said: "You need not trouble yourself, sir. I do not mind a blow, sir. Nothing affects me but an abstract idea."

Go to Electric Park for a Pleasant Trip.

If you wish to spend an enjoyable afternoon or evening amid pleasant surroundings there is no better spot in this vicinity than New Electric Park, the new, high-class Summer resort, situated on South Orange Avenue, Newark.

The management makes a big bid for public favor by presenting an excellent vaudeville show of talented artists, with a weekly change of bill, a German village, a $20,000 carousel, a Gypsy camp, with real Gypsies; the wonderful spectacular electric fountain, a counterpart of the one which created a sensation at the recent Pan-American Exposition, and other interesting features.

One of the biggest attractions at the Park is the dancing hall presided over by Fay, the celebrated Dance King. He and his big band perform every afternoon and evening.

Electric Park can be easily reached from here, and in addition to the pleasure of the ride you are certain to be well satisfied with your trip to Newark's new Summer resort.

JULY CLEARING SALES!

THE third and greatest week of the most colossal sale of summer merchandise that has ever occurred in Newark. Surplus stocks, odd lots, line ends and remnants—thousands of dollars' worth of seasonable and staple goods at a mere fraction of former markings, and in numerous instances selling for prices that nowhere near covers cost of productions.

Shirt Waist Selling Full

NO event ever planned in our famous second floor department has been so fully calculated to create a sensation. All of our white swiss and lawn waists are involved, and the labor expended in their production is scarcely paid for in the prices put upon them. Beautifully trimmed with laces or embroideries and many exquisitely hemstitched—tucked backs, collars and cuffs—a few Irish linen waists in the assortment with medallions and Mexican hand-drawn work. See window display.
